The image shows a drum score for the song 'Chicken Fried' by the Zac Brown Band. It consists of 12 systems of drum notation, each starting with a measure number and a lettered section marker (A through N). The notation includes various drum parts such as snare, hi-hat, and bass drum, with specific rhythmic patterns and dynamics indicated. Key features include:

- Section A: 'Wait for vox' - a rest for the first two measures.
- Section D: 'Guitar intro' - a pattern of quarter notes on the snare and hi-hat.
- Section E: 'Chorus' - a pattern of quarter notes on the snare and hi-hat, with a 'fill last time' instruction.
- Section K: 'March/Military groove' - a pattern of eighth notes on the snare and hi-hat.
- Section N: 'Chorus' - a pattern of quarter notes on the snare and hi-hat, with a 'guitar lick' instruction.

Repetitions are indicated by 'x' followed by a number (e.g., x8, x4). Some sections have specific dynamics or articulation marks like (*) or a slur.
